Omnium Gatherum Media, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Day and the Hour is as sharp as the business end of a shiv. Ennis Drake is a powerful new presence on the horror scene. -Laird Barron author of THE CRONING Jason [Grae] is an unreliable narrator, only too happy to concede that his visions may be illusory. The hints of an alien power struggle in which humans are being used as pawns adds another dimension to the tale, but regardless of all that its heart lies in the struggle of one lonely, flawed man to do the right thing when plunged into terrible circumstances. In a way [Grae] is emblematic of us all, watching as bad things happen to others, doing nothing to prevent them until finally he can no longer stand it. Add to this Drake s pulse pounding, slightly breathless prose style and what you have is a compelling slice of fiction, one that confronts us with moral dilemmas and challenges the reader as to how he or she would respond. I loved it. -Peter Tennant Black Static Magazine Ennis Drake is an anomaly, a writer whose talent matches his considerable ambition. In The Day and the Hour he grapples fearlessly with questions of mortality, faith, sacrifice and honor. Through ingenious plotting and characterization Drake rescues such essential questions from irony and confirms their proper place, at the heart of serious fiction. -S. P. Miskowski author of KNOCK KNOCK and DELPHINE DODD Drake s phantasmagorical imagination is on full display.with images and scenes reminiscent of Clive Barker s extravagances. The Day and the Hour offers clear and compelling evidence Ennis Drake is a writer to watch. -John Langan, author of THE WIDE CARNIVOROUS SKY AND OTHER...
