Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Tales from the White Mountains is a collection of four of Nathaniel Hawthorne s evocative short stories, all set in the eponymous mountains of New Hampshire which captured his imagination. The Great Stone Face is the story of a gentle man who longs for the fulfillment of a prophecy; The Ambitious Guest relates the last night of a loving family in a cabin high above a valley; The Great Carbuncle is a morality tale inspired by a Native American legend of a gem hidden in the mountains; and Sketches from Memory relates Hawthorne s recollections of his own travels which provided material for the other tales in this volume. Haunting and atmospheric, these stories demonstrate what has made Hawthorne one of America s most distinctive and well-loved writers.
