In no objects can more beautiful schemes of colouring be seen than in the tropical lepidoptera. Mr. A. Ford of Bournemouth has lately shown us a series of fine specimens mounted in glass boxes so that both back and front of the insects may be seen and the objects handled without fear of injury. These should be especially valuable to those to whom the matter is of interest. THE LAY FIGURE: ON DOING THINGS QUICKLY. Can you explain to me why so much stress is always laid upon the advantage of speed in artistic production said the Craftsman. I have much doubt myself whether the effort to do things quickly is not a common cause of failure, and whether it is not the reason why so much bad work is turned out. Things done in a hurry are never done well, quoted the Man with the Red Tie. There is something in the old proverb, no doubt, which supports your case, but, all the same, I am not prepared to admit that speed in production is necessarily a cause of bad work. If you accept the proverb you cannot make reservations, retorted the Craftsman. Things are never done well if they are done in a hurry, therefore bad work is the necessary consequence of speed in production--that is obviously implied. Not necessarily, broke in the Art Critic. You are missing the distinction between hurry and speed. There is...
