My last pay-hop was two Saturdays ago and I got my discharge papers yesterday. God willing, I ll never again ride anything more dangerous than a velocipede. I m now a respectable American citizen, and for the future I m going to confine my locomotion to the well-known earth. Get that, Spink Sparrel! The earth! In fact. David Lindsay suddenly looked up from his typewriting. Under his window, Washington Square simmered in the premature heat of an early June day. But he did not even glance in that direction. Instead, his eyes sought the doorway leading from the front room to the back of the apartment. Apparently he was not seeking inspiration; it was as though he had been suddenly jerked out of himself. After an absent second, his eye sank to the page and the brisk clatter of his machine began again.
