Insomniac Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Miscellaneous Female, Damhnait Doyle, Through sleepless ramblings and observations from Newfoundland singer-songwriter Damhnait Doyle, these journals cover her travels from Afghanistan to Japan and all over Canada on tour both solo and with her Shaye bandmates, Kim Stockwood and Tara Maclean. Sharing insights into the highs and lows of juggling a band and a solo career, and whether shes talking about Advil or karma, bikes or Canadian troops in Kabul, Damhnait Doyles style is engaging and uniquely personal. The title of this book was found on the door of a dressing room at the 2005 Canadian Songwriters Hall of Fame event. The room housed Buffy St Marie, Loreena McKennit, and many other notable female musicians, and Damhnait Doyles initial reaction was: Miscellaneous females they are not. But upon reflection, she realised that, as writers, she and these other women were speaking for all women who do not have a public voice. On stage, Damhnait Doyles high-energy style and low-fi approach blend perfectly to produce powerhouse solo performances. Her live album, dav-net, won her two 2004 East Coast Music Awards, for Female and Pop/Rock Recording of the year. Shaye released their first recording 'the bridge' in 2003, and their first single, 'Happy Baby', instantly shot to the top of the acoustic charts, earning a Juno nomination for Best Single of the Year. The follow-up single 'Beauty' also hit the Top 20. Shaye has toured Canada extensively, sharing the stage as special guests with such artists as Nelly Furtado, Dido and Jann Arden.
