Excerpt from Life in West China: Described by Two Residents in the Province of Sz-Chwan. In passing this book through the press it has not been possible to consult the Authors to any great extent, as both of them are still residing in the Province of Sz-Chwan. Robert J. Davidson (Native name Tao Wei-Shin) is living at the capita, Chentu, and Isaac Mason (Native name Mei I-seng) at the city of Sui-ling. In consequence of their absence, queries which have arisen have been settled without referring to them. For the same reason completeness is not claimed for the book. It is an attempt at an historical sketch of Friends Mission in China, with details as to the history, religions, customs, etc., of the Chinese, necessary to a clear understanding of the work. Valuable help has been received from Dr. Timothy Richard, who very kindly ran through the Ms. and made a number of practical suggestions. Leonard Wigham, B. A., of Chungking, at present in England, and several other Friends, have rendered great service in the revision of proofs, etc. - a...
