

Jump Off: The Deep End: A Cautionary Tale

By Traci Morris

Java Tree Press, The. Paperback. Condition: New. 318 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Unflinchingly Real. . . Excerpt from the Prologue: Dont ever judge someone for doing something you say you would not do. A person on drugs or a person who cheats. An alcoholic or a sex addict. I used to say, Oh, I would never do that, or something like, I cant understand how they could get themselves into that situation. But unless youre in that persons shoes, you honestly dont know the circumstances that led them to that decision. And you dont know the addiction that made them stay in it. Addiction. Id always associated the term with drugs or something that could be overcome if the person just tried harder. Tried harder to acknowledge their problem, solve it, stay away from the temptation, and be good. Just like that Well, easier said than done. In my short time on earth and with some unlikely, firsthand wisdom, I could honestly say that I will never again judge a person for being addicted and making poor choices. Because, I became that person. I threw all of my morals and positive family values out the window when I...
