See La Deduction, or Defence of the States of Holland, in Le Clerc, i. 345, and Basnage, i. 342. gratulations of his sovereign, and to offer to him CHAP, the support of the Spanish monarch, if he should 1H feel desirous to rise a step higher, and assume the style and office of king. To so flattering a message, a most courteous answer was returned; and the ambassador proceeded to propose an alliance between the two powers, of which the great object should be to confine within reasonable bounds the ambition of France, which, for so many years, had disturbed the tranquillity of Europe. This was the sole advantage to which Philip looked: to Cromwell the benefit would be, that France might be compelled to refuse aid and harbour to Charles Stuart and his followers; and to contract...
