Thanks to her lackadaisical-natured husband, Kathryn takes it upon herself to concoct a sinful plan to mend the troubles at home: she will cheat on her husband and trick herself into falling back in love with him all for the sake of sparing her daughter the pain of a broken home. Meanwhile, the body of the senator s daughter is found in the middle of a secluded road, and being the grand puzzler Kathryn claims to be, she decides to tackle the mystery behind the death as well. But balancing her solution to extinguish marital issues and solve a possible murder becomes too much for Kathryn to handle. It is that which leads her to confess her adultery to the young Father Louis and guides her to her worst, and more importantly, unexpected affair. Kathryn begins to discover more than she bargained for the longer she is with him. What she also does not expect is the dark secret Father Louis is harboring the entire time he helps Kathryn see the true problems in her life, opening a door to Kathryn s life she wanted to keep shut by any means necessary. Since My Last Confession details the tragic story of a woman going farther than she ever dreamt of to secure a happiness she believes can still exist in her life while keeping her greatest fear at bay: losing her daughter, for it was all for her.
