

An Absence of Light

By Meradeth Houston

Evernight Teen. Paperback. Condition: New. 328 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.8in. Leahs always seen the shadow creatures. She thought she was immune to their evil until now. Shes walked into a massacre, stolen a BMW, and is running from the law for a crime she didnt commit. Nineteen-year-old Leahs life just went from mildly abnormal to totally crazy at lightning speed. But no one will believe that the shadow creatures are framing her for the murder, because shes the only one that can see them. At least thats what she thought. When Leah stumbles across a group who share her ability, she discovers they have something she doesnt: a way to fight back. When the group offers to teach her how to kill the shadow creatures, Leah jumps at the chance. But something is brewing with the creatures. Theyre tracking down the hunters like theres no tomorrow. Leah suspects that maybe there wont be, and its up to her to make sure tomorrow comes. Because shell do anything to stop the shadows, including risking her life and the life of the one she loves to keep the world from being lost to darkness forever.
