His mother, on seeing it, was greatly pleased and said: I am now pleased, and I will pray for blessings on you at the threshold of God, for you have right well taken the revenge of your father. Having said the above, she prepared for satti, and, having seated herself on the pile, said: Do you do much charity after my death, and always keep your thoughts on the rights of the deserving. Then she said to the other Sardars Place on the head of Hira Singh the crown of the kingdom. When the chiefs had placed the crown on his head, then his mother said Enough! I am now satisfied; set fire to...
