THEY CALLED ME LADY - A DOG-UMENTARY (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Lady, a part Siberian Husky, appeared one day on a canal bank in Southern New Mexico. Her coloration and regal appearance as she sat daily on the ditch bank, as though waiting for someone to come and pick her up, attracted the attention of a number of people who started feeding her. One bitterly-cold winter evening, she was severely wounded by an unknown assailant. Efforts to capture her to treat her would were fruitless, so her human friends did the best they could to medicate her. She was soon joined by a little black dog, called Jackie, and the two became inseparable. The adventure continues with the two being captured by and freed from Animal Control, and describes their life together and the people who had befriended them.
