

Spirit of the Sound

By John T. Lehman

Outskirts Press, Inc. Paperback. Condition: New. 284 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Spirits are among us. . . . Since early childhood, Dylan Martin had a sinister dark cloud looming overhead. And it didnt help there was an invisible finger tapping him on the shoulder during the day or had a giant man chasing him in his nightmares with an electrifying touch. Fearing a life suited with a straightjacket and mumbling incoherent babbles along with the other pathetic or insane of this physical world, Dylan had to keep the taunting to himself, and all the while the cameras eye kept watch. Attempts to reveal his tormentors miserably failed and after he spoke out loud at the dinner table one evening with the intention to gather help from his family, Dylans fathers ruthlessness stifled any hope of assistance, his sibliings dared not utter a word one way or the other, and his mother though kind at heart and accomodating to her childrens needs, believed a trip to the local psychiatrist was in order for her middle son. No wonder Dylan was afraid. Battleworn and beaten down by evil forces that make normal men cry defeat, Dylans fateful journey eventually...
