PRODIGALS: A NOVEL

University of Tennessee Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Prodigals: A Novel, Mark Powell, A haunting, evocative novel. In Prodigals, Mark Powell depicts a lost American landscape the small towns and logging camps of the South during World War II, with their subculture of fugitives and transients. I can't get the desperate hero out of my mind. Cary Holladay, author of Mercury In the late summer of 1944, fifteen-year-old Ernest Cobb flees into the dense forests of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Behind him, in his South Carolina hometown, the girl he thought he had impregnated is being buried. There they meet Jimmy Morgan, a wounded war veteran with his own dark secret. The convergence of these lost souls and their chance discovery of an injured child lead to further tragedy. By the end, the once-naive Ernest has begun to comprehend the gaping loneliness that defines much of human existence, but he has also come to sense the possibility of transcendence in the fleeting connections born of love.With...
