

Voices of Christ: Reflections on Applied Christianity (Paperback)

By Robert Christian Fischer, Leo Tolstoy, Bayard Rustin

Enfranchised Mind, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Among all the noise, strife, debates, and politics of the last two millennia, the message of Christ has persisted through those who live it. This message is not a doctrine or a secret teaching, but a loving, engaged way of being which Jesus taught plainly and directly. Within this anthology, five authors describe what it means to them to be living this message in their life and time. The authors are: Leo Tolstoy, the famed late 19th century nihilist who converted late in his life; J.C. Kumarappa, who struggled for Indian independence with Gandhi, and was known as Gandhi's economist; Bayard Rustin, who brought nonviolence and Martin Luther King, Jr., into the American Civil Rights Movement; Hugh Hollowell, who founded a parish for the impoverished in Raleigh, North Carolina; and Magdelene Harrison, a prominent young Quaker scholar who rediscovered the Quaker symbol of going naked as a sign.

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).

This kind of book is every little thing and taught me to look ahead of time and a lot more. I am quite late in starting reading this one, but better than never. I found out this book from my dad and he encouraged this pdf to find out.
