Men die of the diseases which they have studied most, remarked the surgeon, snipping off the end of a cigar with all his professional neatness and finish. It s as if the morbid condition was an evil creature which, when it found itself closely hunted, flew at the throat of its pursuer. If you worry the microbes too much they may worry you. I ve seen cases of it, and not necessarily in microbic diseases either. There was, of course, the well-known instance of Liston and the aneurism; and a dozen others that I could mention. You couldn t have a clearer case than that of poor old Walker of St. Christopher s. Not heard of it? Well, of course, it was a little before your time, but I wonder that it should have been forgotten. You youngsters are so busy in keeping up to the day that you lose a good deal that is interesting of yesterday. Walker was one of the best men in Europe on nervous disease. You must have read his little book...
