By S H Chapman

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Collection of Historical Coins and Medals Relating to American History, the Dominion of Canada and Awards to Indian Chiefs and British Regal and War Medals: Formed by W. H. Hunter, Esq., Toronto This collection is an interesting assemblage of the numismatic historical monuments commemorating the foundation of the French and British colonies in North America that subsequently comprised the Dominion of Canada. Some of the earliest of these were designed as awards to Indian Chiefs for their services or as tokens of friendship, and with the related series of medals awarded by the United States have been developed into the finest collection of them that has ever been made. Then the medallic memorials of the War between France and Great Britain, which involved their colonies in America, is represented by important and interesting examples, and medals referring to North America are included. These are followed by medals referring to the Revolutionary War of separation from the mother country, of the portion that subsequently formed the United States, together with a number of the very rare medals relating to...
